Tax Drop Seen After County Trims Budget

County taxpayers will get a break on their tax bills next year as a result of the proposed San Diego County Budget for the 1972-73 fiscal year, which will see a 10-cent reduction in the tax rate.

County supervisors Monday completed budget deliberations, completing cuts of about $2.1 million on the proposed $299.4 million document, which was reduced to $297.3 million.

The budget is 3.1 per cent more than the current budget of 288.4 million, but added revenues will make the tax drop feasible.

The 10-cent reduction figure is only an approximation, as the new tax rate will not be set until August, when supervisors will study assessment rolls.

The 1972-73 budget was smooth sailing compared to the 1971-72 model, which took 13 weeks to prepare and represented about $18 million in cuts. This budget required three days of cuts which were only $2.1 million.

Sheriff Issues Fraud Warning

The newly expanded fraud division of the San Diego Sheriff's Department issued a warning this week concerning the aluminum siding sales racket.

A spokesman for the department said that homeowners are urged by gyp artists to permit siding installations for a contract price with a percentage discount promised for use of the job on teevee, radio and in newspaper ads.

Regardless of the proposition, the homeowner is going to be bilked, it was warned. "Somebody is trying to steal your hard-earned cash," the spokesman said.

Such attempts should be immediately reported to the department at 232-3811, ext. 328.

The sheriff said that warnings would be issued in the future at regular intervals—probably once a week — to protect the public against fraudulent schemes designed to pilfer from the consumer.

Dry Rain Year Ends With 6.75

Assuming that there is no rainstorms tomorrow, rainfall totals for the current season which ends Friday will go into the records as 6.75 inches.

For the same period the year before, total was 11.03 inches.

A storm which ended in the middle of last week brought .33 inches. There were drizzles later but only on Friday was it measurable. The local weather station listed it as .18.

A new rainfall season starts July 1 but usually months pass before rain is recorded. Reporting rain is slightly confusing since rainfall days end at 4 p.m. Thus, a five o'clock storm would be listed for the following day.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department, for the week of June 19-26, answered five fire calls.

On June 19 at 11:20 a.m., firemen responded to a call to Nicoli's Cafe, 6929 Federal blvd., where a fire had been in progress the night before, filling the structure with smoke.

On June 20, at 9:43 a.m., firemen went to the Mary Thompson home, 3296 Kempf. Fire in the bathroom caused an estimated damage of $350, after a clothes hamper was left too near a heater.

'B' for Burglary

Dr. Dennis McLaughlin, a dentist on Lemon Grove's Skyline drive, has suffered several office burglaries recently in spite of elaborate precautions which include fencing, lights and alarms.

As a last resort he told his office girl to put the daily receipts in among the patients' dental charts instead of in a fireproof combination-lock file he normally uses as a safe.

Saturday night he was burglarized again! The cash had been lifted from the file folder as though the burglar had seen it placed there. Nothing else had been disturbed. It looked like an inside job! Tuesday, Sheriff's deputy E. J. Redman, who worked the case, broke it. It wasn't an inside job at all. It was just a common-sense burglar.

"How did you know where the money was hidden?" he asked the burglar at the interrogation?

"I just looked in the file-folder divider marked 'C' for 'cash'," he confessed.

Naked as a Tax Collector

Maybe some types of revolution are OK after all.

The Boston Tea Party, once an important part of our glorious history until it was downgraded by school text-book historians, was cut of the same cloth as a revolt by a Memphis dry cleaner.

In Memphis, LeSaunders Hudson, a black, small-businessman, rebelled when his business taxes became so burdensome that he couldn't pay them and support his family. He revolted when the tax collectors insisted that of the two options, taxes must be paid first.

Then four state tax agents swooped down on his dry cleaning firm demanding $167 he was unable to pay and announced the seizure of his equipment. Hudson then grabbed his shotgun and forced three of the collectors to disrobe.

What a beautifully symbolic gesture! There they stood as naked as we feel when we answer the questions of that voluminous scroll designated as Form 1040 — Federal Income Tax.

The fourth collector was allowed to remain clad to be a hostage through which Hudson's tax plight would be heard by Tennessee's Governor Winfield Dunn.

Naturally Hudson's act was considered to be highly illegal by a small, well-organized group whose aim is to collect exactly what the tax law allows — and illegal it is. But the gesture must have been silently applauded by the much larger group who quake with fear as their souls stand unclad on their tax returns — souls cringing against the pain of penalty that something may have inadvertently left out.

Hudson said he knew he was doing wrong and was "willing to face the consequences." His use of firearms cannot be condoned but frenzy creates strange reactions. Hudson's family-support need was a now thing.

Maybe he thought Americans should be given the same treatment as that given foreigners who become recipients of our global giveaway? We call it loans but precious little is ever paid back and nothing of theirs is seized. And the citizen who works to produce that money faces disgrace, imprisonment and loss of private property if he resists the tax man.

The tax-spending system is a mess of inequities. Authors of money bills should be required to have their names permanently attached to their bills so that they can be reckoned with at the polls.

A formula should be developed to give taxpayers equal treatment with foreigners. When foreigners refuse to repay loans, taxpayers should be forgiven their share of the bad-loan judgment.

This is not a suggestion that we arm against tax collectors as Mr. Hudson did. Nor are we overlooking the fact that Hudson's problem was a state matter rather than federal. But we should shorten that distance between the people who so happily spend and the people from whom they take it.

If enough people send copies of this complaint to their state and federal lawmakers, it might create the idea that some citizens object to getting the collection heat while little, if any, effort is made to retrieve our money distributed to people of foreign lands.

If the same collection practices were used on them, they wouldn't accept our "loans."

Carnival Produces $632 Profit for L.G. Chamber

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce became recipients of $632.63 — proceeds from the Old Time Days Carnival last month.

President Mike Carlen, said the money represented four days of work by members of the Chamber and others and that the money would go into the general fund.

The Lemonettes, a group of Lemon Grove chamber men who burlesque as women and pass out candy at parades, asked for $19 to defray the cost of lemon drops for the parade in Oceanside earlier this month.

Tickets for the Old Time Days Fourth of July picnic are available now at the Chamber office, Carlen said. The tickets are good for hot dogs, beer and soft drinks. The office will be closed July 4, however, and tickets should be picked up this week.

Don Minnick, chamber representative to the County Board of Supervisors, attended a district meeting Wednesday at Gillespie Field for a discussion on the upcoming County budget. The budget, telephone-book in size and thickness, will be available to interested persons at the chamber office.

A community park is being planned for the Massachusetts-New Jersey area, Carlen said. Some discussion took place for attempting to get a community pool built in it.

The community telephone book, now planned to cover the east county instead of Lemon Grove only, will be ready in July, according to Helen Myers, chamber secretary. Originally it was to have been produced in 1971.

A 16-unit office building is planned for Broadway near Kempf — opposite the Jack-in-Box, according to Frank Shughrue.

Shughrue also announced that youngsters of the L. G. Youth Center are offering to conduct clean-up projects where requested. Those knowing of eyesores should contact Shughrue at the First National Bank.

Budget Work Completed; Rate Change Undecided

The Helix Irrigation District Board of Directors last week completed work on the 1972-73 fiscal year budget, but failed to reach a decision on the rate structure which is expected to include some massive changes.

The budget will be approved and announced next week.

After two weeks of meetings on the budget, directors trimmed the document in hopes of overcoming — at least partially — an expected deficit of $1.3 million.

After budget cuts where directors found them feasible, a deficit of over $1 million is still indicated, compared to the budget and expected revenues based on the present rate structure.

In order to overcome the additional deficit, directors have discussed various proposals, including borrowing up to $1 million and doing away with the presently-used spiraling commodity rate in favor of a single commodity rate.

The spiraling rate calls for small water users paying up to 50 cents per 100 cubic feet of water, while larger users pay as little as 15 cents per 100 feet. The single rate would make one rate for all water users, despite the amount used and would probably be between 25 and 30 cents per 100 cubic feet.

Directors originally had hoped to use the single commodity rate, reached via a five-year transitional phase during which small users would pay gradually less per unit, while larger users gradually paid more per unit.

The five-year transitional phase was to soften the blow for the large users, who are faced with up to a 100% increase under the single commodity proposal.

As the budget was not reduced significantly, however, the transitional phase has all but been ruled out, and directors are expected to go straight to the single commodity.

A reasonable rate hike will undoubtably accompany the rate change for the average water user, but the increase will probably be unable to erase the budget deficit, and the district will probably borrow money to balance the budget, which remains at over $6 million.

Directors were faced with either retaining much of the deficit or cutting construction costs for sorely needed renovation work, although not an absolute necessity, is very important in retaining adequate standards of service.

Any loan that the district determines is necessary will be paid back over a period of up to five years, probably reflected in a rate increase as needed.

Any rate change for the 1972-73 year was to have been made at yesterday's meeting. It was thought that the district would make the rate change last week, so that customers could be notified in time for the change to be indicated in the October bills.

Monday was the deadline, as meter reading for the September billing was to begin then. However, the district has held off reading meters until the rate change was made, enabling the change to be reflected in the October bills. Directors would have to make the change soon, or meter reading could get too far behind.

With an expected rate increase, local property owners will still have one optimistic note, as the district tax rate is expected to be lowered when the directors meet as the board of equalization to set the 1972-73 tax rate.

Property owners now pay 17 cents per $100 assessed valuation, and the tax decrease should bring the rate down to about 10 cents. The 1972-73 fiscal year is expected to be the last year of taxing under the district's program of tax phase-out.

The tax rate will be set July 26.

All You Need Is Kids – and Picnic Basket

Pack that basket for a picnic getaway Tuesday.

And bring the kids along.

It's the annual community picnic at the Green Spot park, Washington and Alton, Lemon Grove.

There'll be games, prizes, hot dogs and soft drinks for them.

There'l be cooled beer, and music by Bill Tabor's group for dancing adults.

Admission to the day-long affair is free under the auspices of the Old Time Days Association. Picnic grounds will be open 10 a.m. - 6 p.m.

"No reservations are necessary," says Don McCrae, picnic chairman, "just bring your basket and the kids."

$4 Million Budget Gets Approval; Trustees Want Further Reduction

The Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees met Monday night and approved a preliminary budget of just over $4 million, which would call for a substantial increase in the tax rate.

The budget, as presented to trustees Bert Cosby, Leonard Klee and Henry Reinecke, would call for an increase of approximately 19 cents on the tax rate. Trustees Jim Dorman and Warren Buckner were absent.

Cosby, who is president of the board, told the administration that he "couldn't approve a 19-cent increase at this time", indicating that further cuts would have to be made on the budget.

R. Paul Reynolds, assistant superintendent for business services, who presented the document to the board, told trustees that cuts have been made and that it would be desirable to keep the reserves in the budget at a satisfactory level.

Robert Sutton, assistant superintendent for educational services, said that the budget could be trimmed by reducing reserves to $250,000 from the proposed $271,000, thus decreasing the tax hike to about 14 cents.

District superintendent Byron L. Netzley agreed with Sutton that the reserves could be cut to $250,000, which would be a satisfactory level.

Trustees still shied away from the 14-cent hike and directed the administrators to make additional cuts in the budget which would bring the tax hike down to about 10 cents.

Administrators agreed that further cuts would be difficult to make without cutting back some of the educational programs offered by the district, but agreed to study the budget and make the necessary cuts.

Any cuts which would be made would probably have to be in the salary and transportation areas, according to Sutton. The preliminary budget included a cost of living increase for employees of 3.75 per cent.

Additional money from the state or higher-than-expected assessed valuation would also reduce the proposed tax increase, but the outlook in those areas are somewhat dim.

After more than an hour's discussion of the budget, trustees agreed to approve the preliminary budget as presented, but directed the administration to prepare cuts of about one per cent, which would lower the tax increase to about 10 cents, to be executed at the next meeting of the board July 10.

That action was taken to allow the budget to be sent to the county for approval or ammendments. At the July 10 meeting, trustees will be asked to approve the budget for publication and any additional cuts or ammendments may be made at that meeting.

Two other items of note were handled at the meeting, aside from several routine items.

Trustees, after a short discussion, approved the advertisement of bids for the district's proposed warehouse project and the payment of the engineer for the project.

Trustees also approved several meet-and-confer items, which were negotiated between the administration and the district's certificated employee council. Items approved included additional books, a la carte lunches for teachers, salary increases of 3.75 per cent, Miller-Unruh reading specialists, and an understanding for minimum days for professional growth.

Meet-and-confer items which were eliminated included personal property insurance for teachers, additional teacher aides, a teacher dental plan, and an income protection plan.

Vote Asked In CPO Issue

SAN DIEGO (CNA) —The County supervisors took their regular pot-shot at the Comprehensive Planning Organization Tuesday.

The board wants the electorate to decide what form regional government for land use and transportation should take.

Supervisor Henry Boney's letter sparked the activity. He offered three possibilities: 1. A CPO-like organization dominated by the cities; 2. County control of regional rules, or 3. Combining all city governments and the county into one government.

County has balked at CPO's formation because it would be a third level of government with taxing power. Supervisors represent 100 per cent of the county's population, but on a weighted scale, supervisors would have only a 30 per cent voice.

On July 7, a public hearing on CPO will be held in San Diego in the State building. It is sponsored by Senator Clair Burgener.

Pair Arrested In Strong Arm Robbery Case

Vernon Martin, 18, of San Diego, and his 17-year-old companion were arrested last week in connection with the strong arm robbery of a Lemon Grove youth.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, the two suspects apparently went to the home of the victim in Lemon Grove last Saturday afternoon.

The victim allowed them to enter, he said, because the 17-year-old had once attended school with him at Lemon Grove Junior High, although he did not know his name.

The suspects then allegedly went into the victim's bedroom where they struck him in the head and made off with $91 in cash from the victim's wallet, he said.

The victim went outside as the suspects left, noting the license number of the vehicle, then called the Sheriff's Department. Deputies took the license number and the victim looked the young suspect up in an old school annual and identified him.

Deputies later arrested the suspects in San Diego.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Hermoso" is a Spanish word that can mean "beautiful" or "handsome." "Hermoso" might be used in expressions like "Es un arbol hermoso." (It is a beautiful tree.) or "El es un hombre hermoso." (He is a handsome man.) The letter "h" is silent in "hermoso" calling for a pronunciation similiar to "ehr-MOH-soh."

"Mas hermoso" is the way to say "more beautiful" or "more handsome." We may use this phrase to say "Este vestido es mas hermoso que el otro." (This dress is more beautiful than the other one.) or "Este hombre es mas hermoso que el otro" (This man is more handsome than the other one)

"El mas hermoso" and "la mas hermosa" are superlative forms which suggest "the most handsome" and "the most beautiful." For example we may say of a man "El es el mas hermoso." (He is the most handsome.) In reference to a woman we might say "Ella es la mas hermosa." (She is the most beautiful.)

"Importante" means "important." This may be used in phrases like "El sabe lo que es importante." (He knows what is important.) and "El sabe cual es mas importante." (He knows which is more important.)

"El mas importante" means "the most important." This superlative expression may be found in phrases like "Cual es el mas importante?" (Which is the most important?) and "Este trabajo es el mas importante." (This work is the most important.)

RETIRING — Cletus W. Gardner will retire Friday after 26 years as San Diego County's Director of Parks and Recreation. Gardner, a veteran of World War II, joined the county after the war. He also served 20 years as a referee in the National Football League.

'Biff' Gardner To Step Down From Parks Post

San Diego County Director of Parks and Recreation, Cletus W. Gardner, of Coronado, retires Friday after 26 years in the position.

His retirement from county service brings him to the end of three separate careers, having retired in 1967 from the U. S. Naval Reserve with the rank of commander and from 20 years of refereeing for the National Football League.

A native Pennsylvanian, Gardner first came to California in 1930 as a Villanova University star on the Eastern team for the Shrine East-West Football Classic.

He returned the following year to attend the University of Southern California and later became Director of Athletics at St. Augustine School for Boys in San Diego and at Sweetwater High School in National City.

Following four years as a World War II naval officer, he returned to San Diego and was appointed Director of Recreation for the County.

"At that time the County had about 27 parks which had been operated by the Road Department and Property Department. My job was primarily handling special events, such as dedications, and charity campaigns, and setting up community recreation programs for various school districts in the unincorporated area," Gardner recalls.

"Over the years we have been in a constant state of change as our region has developed and changed. We took over the lifeguards from the sheriff, the development and operation of parks, the Gillespie Field gym and pool, and though we steadily added parks, we also passed along a number of County parks to cities as they were annexed or incorporated. We still have twice as many as when I came here," "Biff" Gardner said.

Pending the appointment of a permanent replacement, through the County's civil service system, Assistant Parks and Recreation Director Lloyd Lowery will be acting director.

The Youth Outreach Program provides off-street recreation for youngeters in the Golden Hills area of San Diego.

Sites for all types of housing units are graded and ready for constructin start, he said, with streets and curbs installed and underground utilities in.

It is expected that models of single-family homes and townhouses will be open for public inspection and sales within the next few weeks, he added.

The plan includes ground cover, low shrubbery and tree clusters on slopes tying into the residential lot landscaping to provide a uniform flow of plantings; a variety of plantings within residential sections and greenbelt and open space areas; decorative trees to line the streets; ground cover, shrubs and trees for two neighborhood parks and the village park, and ground cover, shrubs and other plantings at the Village entrance.

Co-Chairmen Named For Fund Drive

Walted Zable, president of Cubic Corporation, and Virgil Pedersen, senior partner of Hoskins and Sells, have been named co-chairmen to head the Junior Achievement annual fund drive aimed at raising $105,000 during a one-month campaign.

A kick-off meeting was scheduled by the co-chairmen with some 50 volunteer business and professional men to go over the main campaign objective which is to raise sufficient funds to expand both industry and high school student participation in the JA program.

By forming miniature companies, developing and marketing products, selling stock, keeping records and finally liquidating, JA students gain insights into the free enterprise system by being a direct part of it, explained Zable, JA board chairman.

The money raised will help support and promote Junior Achievement in its efforts to involve youth in business and industry, proving its slogan "In Junior Achievement Business and Youth are Partners —Partners in Progress," said Zable.

Counseled by local businessmen, over 450 San Diego students worked with JA to form 23 companies during the past year.

Mary Browne Tops I.E.D., Pony Loop

Mary Browne Realty rebounded from a 2-0 deficit in the first inning with four big runs then held on for a 4-3 decision over IED Conic Corporation last week to remain in first place in the Spring Valley Pony League.

IED picked up a pair of runs in the first frame off winning pitcher Ken Hallin with a walk and a pair of singles. Mary Browne picked up four straight singles, a strikeout, another single, and a sacrifice fly, to score the winning runs.

IED came back in the fifth frame with a walk and two singles to make the final score 4-3. Terry Boothe gave up seven hits and absorbed the loss.

In other action, the second place Dodgers split a pair of games to retain the second spot, topping IED, 2-1 on Russ Palser's four-hitter. The Dodgers were down 1-0 after three innings, but picked up a run in the sixth and tallied the winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning. Two singles and a hit batter loaded the bases for the winners before Tony Franco sacrificed the final tally home. Paiser struck out 12 and walked just two.

The Giants topped the Dodgers, 5-1, on Jim Kelso's one-hitter. The Giants picked up a pair of runs in the first, two more in the second, and one in the sixth frame. In the top of the sixth, trailing 4-1, the Dodgers managed to load the bases with two out, but an infield out killed the rally.

The Giants had a rougher time of things against Musser and Sons, dropping a 6-5 decision. Musser scored a pair of runs in the first frame on two singles, two walks, and an error. Musser added a run in the second inning and tallied three times in the fifth frame to take a 6-1 lead. The Giants put three singles, a double, and an error together in the sixth frame for four runs, but the rally fell short.

In the only other game of the week, IED topped Musser, 3-2. Both teams scored in the early innings, leaving the game tied 1-1 at the end of five frames. IED scored twice in the sixth on three singles and an error to take a 3-1 lead. In the seventh inning, Musser bounced back with three singles and scored a run, but the inning ended with two runners stranded.

SDG&E has a lot more going on than your lights.

• Environmental enhancement
Undergrounding is one way we try to make power facilities less visible. In 1971, we completed 16 underground projects and added 208 miles of underground lines. We have budgeted $10,375,000 in 1972 for further undergrounding in new and existing home areas.
We have also spent $13,777,000 in 1971 and 1972 to build fuel storage tanks to hold enough environmentally acceptable low sulfur fuel oil to meet rising energy demands. We have lowered these tanks to ground level and landscaped them to make them more attractive.

• Homemaking information
Through nine monthly homemaking shows, our home economists provide free home care and appliance information to homemakers throughout the County. And last year alone, we handled 24,539 phone requests for homemaking information.

• Future power sources
We constantly search for new power sources to replace those now using diminishing supplies of natural fossil fuels. To help make clean, reliable nuclear power even more efficient, we are investing nearly $1.5 million within the next 10 years in co-sponsored research on fast breeder reactors. We are also drilling in the Imperial Valley to locate hot underground water for geothermal power production.

• Environmental protection
By the end of 1972, we will have committed $19 million to making power production and distribution more compatible with the environment. This year, we have earmarked $9,949,000 for plant modifications to reduce the formation of nitrogen and sulfur oxides.

• Environmental research
In 1971, we spent $985,000 to study the effect of energy production and distribution on the environment. This year, we have budgeted $1,483,000 for studies like last year's air quality research around Encina in which Stanford Research Institute scientists proved that there was no vegetation damage in the area attributable to power plants.

• Consumer affairs
We now have a separate Consumer Affairs Department to give you direct information on the most economical use of our services and a quick reference to related industries.

• People power
The real power behind your power is the 3,500 people who work for us...from the reliable SDG&E servicemen who make day or night house calls to the less visible employees whose capability and dedication you turn on every time you flick your light switch.

Our commitment to San Diego
These are but a few of the things going on at SDG&E. Many of our jobs are complicated and expensive. But we view all of them as a commitment. Not only to bring you the most efficient energy for your money but to keep San Diego County a beautiful place for all of us to live.

Moose Lodge Pulls Big Upset: Sweeps Pair From Loop Leader

Loyal Order of the Moose, playing the spoiler role for the past couple of weeks, knocked off league-leading Luigi's Restaurant twice last week, sending Luigi's into a first place tie in the Spring Valley Little League standings.

The first game of the doubleheader was a pitcher's duel which lasted eight innings. Ralph Amargo got the win in relief of Roger Revel for the Moose, with Revel eventually scoring the game's only run.

After the regulation six innings of scoreless ball, Amargo releived Revel and Luigi's took out ace twirler Jeff Whitley. Revel had tossed 2-hit ball while whiffing 14 and Whitley tossed four-hit ball while striking out 11. Amargo, a left hander, bailed himself out of a jam in the top of the seventh. With one out and a runner at first base, the batter hit a line drive toward centerfield which Amargo stabbed, running to first base for the double play unassisted. Had the ball gone through, he would have faced runners at first and third base with just one out.

In the bottom of the eighth inning, John Valluzzi ripped a double to drive in Revel with the winning run.

In the second game, both teams opened with big guns and the score was knotted at 4-4 after one inning. Moose added two runs in the second, two more in the third, and another pair in the fourth inning to make the score 10-4. Richard Hinze, who notched the win for Moose, held Luigi's scoreless in the second, third, fourth, and fifth frames. Luigi's rallied briefly in the sixth inning, but could muster only one run.

Berg Electric, trailing by a game as play began last week, split a pair of games with S & H Martinizing to move into the tie with Luigi's.

Martinizing sent Vernon Cramer to the mound for the first game and came up with a 6-0 upset. Rinchard Sing, Wayne Yost, Vern Cramer, and his brother, Zane Cramer, all doubled for the winners.

Berg came back to claim the nightcap, 3-1, on an excellent pitching job by Tim Newman.

Dial Finance split a pair of games with Post Office to keep pace with Berg, winning the nightcap, 1-0, after losing the opener, 1-0.

Jim Murray was credited with the win in the first encounter, giving up just three hits and striking out 13 batters. Post Office scored the winning run in the second inning on an error.

In the second game, Ronnie Fultz knocked in Ernie Miller with the only run of the game in the fourth inning. Miller earned the win on the mound, tossing a two-hitter.

In the only other games played, Jackson Supply won twice over Kiwanis, claiming 3-0 and 9-7 decisions. Tony Richards was the winning pitcher in the first contest with a one-hitter, striking out 15.

After last week's action, the standings tightened up considerably, with Luigi's and Berg knotted for first place at 9-5, Jackson Supply and S & H Martinizing tied for third place at 7-6, Dial Finance in fifth at 8-7, Moose Lodge in sixth place at 7-7, Post Office seventh at 6-8, and Kiwanis in the cellar at 3-12.

With seven games left on the schedule, it's still anybody's pennant, as the difference between sixth place and first is just 2 games.

In the intermediate league, Mission Bay Concrete won twice to continue unbeaten in first place. Mission Bay beat Nicoll's Racers, 9-2 and 1-0. In the second game, Frank Lujan's home run in the first inning was the only run.

In the minor league, it was Stroh's Lomita Bowl continuing unbeaten, topping NTC Morse Code School, 30-2 and 13-2. Highlights on the week included John Rupp's home run, helping Polar Frozen Foods to a 19-15 decision over Fire Dept. The Fire Dept. won the second game, 9-7.

In the rookie league, Jackson Supply won one of two games, edging Foster Freeze, 16-15, but dropping a 9-5 decision to US Elevator. Jackson holds a one-game edge over Fosters and AC Appliance, who are tied for second place.

Can Zimmer Survive Thomas' Demotion?

by Max Goodwin

Padre baseball manager Don Zimmer may have shortened his tenure with the San Diego team when he separated his team from Derrel Thomas, his rookie second baseman.

Not that the cocky little infielder doesn't deserve to be demoted for more seasoning but his attitude also needs recovering. Zimmer said that Thomas' attitude was wrecking team morale and Zimmer, in a fit of frustration, shouted at Thomas, publicly, "Somebody's going to Alexandria (Padre farm club) and it's going to be either me or you."

Thus, he was committing the club to the separation before he touched bases with club president Buzzie Bavasi.

Thomas should have been disciplined long before now — but he wasn't sent to Alexandria, he was sent to Hawaii. In all of this writer's life, under some good employers and bad, he was never sent to Hawaii, expenses paid, as a disciplinary measure.

Zimmer's sticky situation arises from a couple of concepts having to do with management pecking order. 1. He demoted a very valuable property without consulting the top brass. This is borne out by his statement that "one of us is going to Alexandria . . ." That means that he was not at all sure he, too, wasn't going to be demoted for his unilateral action.

2. Bavasi did what top brass must always do — back up his chief executive.

But it gave Bavasi no options. If Bavasi thought of penalizing Thomas in any number of other ways, they were lost to him.

3. Lost also must have been some of Bavasi's faith in Zimmer. Not for Zimmer's action but for his timing. No organizational head can exist in comfort with subordinates backing him into a corner and the only out Bavasi had appears to have been some later negotiation when Thomas was shipped to Hawaii instead of Alexandria. But management will carry that gnawing of uncertainty that the same thing can happen again.

Players are too valuable to be shuffled around without brass concordance. The courtesy of a telephone call prior to the decision would have put everything into focus. Then if Thomas sulked himself out of the organization the sportswriters could have only pointed the finger at Bavasi who takes a lot of that in good grace. Now Bavasi carries the finger pointing both for Zimmer and himself.

But there is a happier possibility. Putdown of the talented youngster Thomas may be the rap on the knuckles he needed to find himself and thus become the brightest star in Zimmer's baseball firmament.

In the latter case Zimmer's action would not only have been justified, but he, himself, would become somewhat of a talent handling legend.

Speedy/Mac's Gets Sole Possession Of Loop Lead

Speedy 7-11/Mac's Drive In won two games last week while co-league leader Delp Plastering dropped one of two games, enabling Speedy/Mac's to claim sole possession of first place in the Spring Valley Bobby Sox League.

For Speedy/Mac's, the victories were the eleventh and twelfth straight wins. The team belted 17 hits in the first contest, a 17-7 decision over Robin Hood Auto Sales. Sixteen Speedy/Mac's hits and a four-hitter by pitcher Debbye Whitley spelled a 17-4 decision over SV Woman's Club in the second game.

Delp Plastering had pitching woes in its first game, giving up 21 runs to the Woman's Club. Laurie Wilkinson went the distance for the Woman's Club, chalking up the 21-6 victory.

Delp evened its record on the week with a 15-2 pounding of Sportland. Kathie Rhodes tossed a six hitter for the first six innings of the game for the winners, then Valerie Aranda twirled the final frame, reaching her 100th strike-out of the season.

Easter's Plumbing, in third place last week, moved up into second place, percentage points ahead of Delp. The two teams were to have played yesterday, with the winner rated the best shot at catching Speedy/Mac's.

In other games last week, Wilford's Financial Center topped Sportland, 23-9, SD Linen beat SV Boosters, 13-6, Stroh's Lomita Bowl got by

Norton Ready For Friday Go With N.Y. Champ

James J. Woody, New York State heavyweight champion, who lost a hard-fought decision to Ken Norton at the Coliseum last September gets a second shot at Norton as they clash in the 10-round main event at the Coliseum Friday.

Woody brings a 20-10-1 record with him and has fought some of the best names in boxing — George Foreman, Buster Mathis, Brian London and Oscar Bonavena. He lost a split decision to Jose Garcia, the only boxer to defeat Norton.

In their match here last

year, Woody was favored over Norton and after six rounds was ahead on points but then seemed to tire as his opponent moved strongly in the final stages of the bout to gain the decision.

Norton has only one loss in 28 professional fights and has won 22 of his 27 victories by knockouts. Currently the muscular San Diegan is rated as the number 10 heavyweight in the world by one poll and number 13 by another. He is closing in on a summer fight against a boxer in the top ten, according to his handlers.

Preliminary bouts start at 8 p.m. Friday. Tickets are $7 ringside, $5 reserved and $3 general admission. Military general admissions are priced at $2 with proper identification at the door.

Recovered Lomelin Headlines Corrida

The popular and daring Antonio Lomelin, critically injured during his return to Tijuana after numerous triumphs in Spain, helps to headline the Independence weekend corrida Sunday in the downtown bullring, El Toreo de Tijuana.

Lomelin, Monterrey ace Manolo Martinez, and long-time star Jaime Rangel will each face two bulls of the famed Las Huertas Ranch, beginning at 4 p.m.

This will be the fourth formal corrida of Tijuana's 34th season. Bullfights now will be staged each Sunday at 4 p.m. through Sept. 10.

Lomelin, 27, of Acapulco, was outstanding at Tijuana in 1968, then campaigned during the summers in Spain, where he starred in 1970 and 1971 in the world's largest taurine event, the Feria de San Isidro, at Madrid.

Roofers Grab Pony Flag, Set For Playoff Tilt

Hutchison Roofing won two of three games last week to win the Sky-Grove Pony League second-half pennant and set up a playoff game tonight with first-half champ Ned's Outboard.

Hutchison took on second place Lions Club in a pair of crucial games. Had the Lions swept the doubleheader, the second-half flag would have been their's.

Hutchison, however, sent ace pitcher Robert Bryan to the mound and he responded with a one-hit shutout to clinch the pennant, 3-0. The Lions sent ace Neal Luscomb to the mound in the nightcap and he twirled a two-hitter, 1-0, but the victory was not enough.

The Roofers added icing to the championship cake with a 6-5 decision over Lido's, aided by Craig Leonetti's first inning home run.

First-half champion Ned's Outboard won all three of its games against Murphy Plumbing to finish second, half a game ahead of the Lions. Ned's thumped the Plumbers, 14-2, won an extra inning game, 5-4, and collected the third win by a 9-5 count. For Ned's, Earl Ritchey knocked his fifth and sixth homers of the year, and Bob Lane won his ninth game against one loss to tie with Hutchison's Robert Bryan for the league leaad.

Lane and Bryan may face each other in tonight's playoff game, which begins at 5 p.m. at the Sky-Grove Pony League field behind San Miguel Elementary School.

Extension Course Set

A course for teachers to be offered in Lemon Grove will highlight the summer quarter classes offered by the University of California Extension.

"Workshop in Innovative Practices in the Teaching of Reading", the local course, will be taught at Lemon Grove Junior High School beginning July 31.

Several extension courses are also available at Grossmont College for the summer quarter.

Orioles Beat Fashionettes; Tie For Bobby Sox Lead

The Severin, Garzenelli, and Stenbeck Orioles won two games, including a showdown match with the Len's of Lemon Grove Fashionettes, to move into a first place tie with the Fashionettes last week in Lemon Grove Bobby Sox League play.

The Orioles started the week with a good effort, blasting the Shaklee Products Nibblers, 21-5. The Orioles boomed ten runs in the first inning to break the game open.

Meanwhile, the Fashionettes were quietly doing away with the Lido's Pizza Spicers, 12-3. Lisa Cuadras led the Fashionettes with two doubles and a single.

So, as the Fashionettes and Orioles squared off, the Fashionettes retained a one-game lead over the Orioles in the standings.

Pam Jackson took the mound for the Orioles, tossing a masterful game, 13-4. Miss Jackson struck out nine batters enroute to the victory and aided her team with a pair of doubles. The win for the Orioles was their third in as many tries against the Fashionettes.

The third place Lions Club Lionettes missed a chance to move up on the leaders by dropping two games. The Lionettes were beaten by the Michael's House of Sight and Sound Quasarettes, 24-6, and by the Quota Club Midgets, 19-7.

The two losses put the Lionettes three games behind the leaders and all but out of the pennant race. Unless both the Fashionettes and the Orioles hit a losing skein, the remainder of the season will be a two-team race.

In other games, the Lido's Pizza Spicers kept their record unblemished, losing their seventeenth and eighteenth games in a row. The Spicers took it on the chin from the Southwest Leasing and Car Rental Lessees, 28-13, and the Shaklee Products Nibblers, 37-9.

In the only other contest, the Midgets topped the Lessees, 21-18.

In the minor league, the Lemon Grove Chrysler-Plymouth Crickets moved two full games ahead of the second place Kiwanis Club Emeralds by winning twice, including a 9-3 decision over the Emeralds.

After a 1-1 deadlock after the first frame, the Crickets tallied three times in the third inning to take the lead over the Emeralds for good. The Emeralds added runs in the fourth inning, but failed to score for the rest of the game. The other victory for the Crickets came over the C. V. Electric Chargers, 16-8. The Emeralds added a 19-10 victory over the Thomas and Son Disposal Cougars.

Fireworks Display Follows Reds-Padres Tilt Saturday Night

A fireworks spectacular, on the field and in the sky, will feature the Padres' salute to God Bless America Week this Saturday evening at the Stadium.

The fireworks show, which will follow the Padres-Reds contest, figures to be a fitting climax to a pre-game pageant involving bands, color guards aand singing groups, all starting at 6:55. Tonight the team faces the Atlanta Braves. The Reds start their series Friday night.

Participating in the patriotic pageant will be the Naval Training Center Band, the NTC Bluejacket Choir, the 50-State Color Guard and marching groups representing the Boy Scout, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and Y-Guides. Winners of God Bless America Week's essay contest also will be announced.

Then after the Padres and Reds battle to a decision, a mammoth fireworks show will be staged. Whistling Roman Candles, Octopus Shells, Whistle, Star Shells and Comet Shells are included in the vast assortment of fireworks along with field-level set pieces that feature a 20 by 20-foot American Flag.

The traditional holiday event lured more than 40,000 persons to the Stadium last year, a record single-game attendance. A similar crowd is expected Saturday but there still are available seats in all price ranges.

Tickets are now on sale at the Padres Stadium ticket windows open daily at 9 a.m. and at Ticketron outlets throughout San Diego County.

Gasoline Sales Tax To Begin Saturday

Starting Saturday, motorists in California will have to pay a five percent sales tax on the gasoline they purchase to propel their vehicles, contributing thereby $35 million in additional sales tax revenue to the cities and counties of the state.

The application of sales tax to the purchase of gasoline and similar fuels comes as a result of Governor Ronald Reagan's having signed into law in December Senate Bill 325 passed by the 1971 Legislature.

John W. Lynch, chairman of the State Board of Equalization ,which administers the state sales and use tax law, said that service station operators already have received from the board regulations for administering the tax on retail sales of gasoline.

The standings now show Speedy/Mac's on top at 17-5, Easter's in second at 15-5, Delp in third at 16-6, Stroh's fourth at 12-8, SD Linen and Wilford's tied for fifth at 11-11, Robin Hood in seventh at 10-11, Woman's Club eighth at 9-14, Sportland in ninth at 4-18, and Boosters on the bottom at 2-18.

College Classes Produce Special Potentiometers

Grossmont College has successfully combined three engineering technology programs to produce a closed system for automated production of extremely accurate special potentiometers used in function generators and data collecting.

Operation of the highly refined system involved various meters used in the electronic technology courses, a numerically controlled mill used in industrial technology courses and the end product, the potentiometer used in computer technology courses.

A student operator using a keyboard instrument, transmits information visually taken from electronic meters into a computer. The computer digests the information and makes a magnetic tape that provides instruction for the numerically controlled mill which in turn, automatically machines the potentiometer. The process may also be used to make circuit boards and other electronic instructional equipment.

According to William D. Tester, computer technology instructor, students enrolled in any of the three programs involved in the intricate process are instructed in the methods used to produce the finished product by each of the three inputs. Many of the students presently enrolled in the courses are employed part-time in their field with local industry.

Applications are now being accepted for these courses and other engineering technology courses for the fall semester at Grossmont College. Deadline for applying for these and other courses offered at Grossmont College during the fall semester, is August 25. Additional information concerning enrollment in the fall semester may be obtained by contacting the Admissions Office at the college.

Susan Mae Andrews Earns B.A. Degree

Susan Mae Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Curtis Andrews, of 1342 Helix st., Spring Valley, was among 535 students at Bob Jones University of Greenville, South Carolina, who received degrees at commencement ceremonies.

Navy Night's special reduced rates are: Adults $2.25 and youths (5-17) $1. Children under five are admitted free.

Tickets must be purchased in advance from the Special Services or Armed Services "Y". No tickets will be sold at Sea World.

Homeowner Complaint Not Satisfied, He Says

Stanley R. Otto, 318 Worthington st., Spring Valley, said this week that his complaint to the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) concerning a drainage ditch "three feet from my house" had not been satisfied.

He said that he had been weighted down with a welter of correspondence but the ditch problem is still there. The ditch prevents the installation of agate when a proposed fence is installed, Otto said .

Hallcraft Homes, the developer of the property, according to Otto, claims the property, together with the drainage ditch had been accepted in January, 1972.

The ditch carries water from property above his to a property below. He said the ditch not only prevented the gate installation but it did not adequately carry off the drainage.

He said HUD announced that it was closing the files on the matter. He did not say what his next step would be.

Tennis Lessons Due

The Spring Valley Park and Recreation District will sponsor tennis lessons starting Saturday. Hours are: "beginners" 8 to 9 a.m.; "intermediate" and "adults", 9 to 10 a.m.; and "advanced" from 10 to 11 a.m. Sign-up will be at the Mt. Miguel tennis courts.

Local Student In University Stage Company

Terry Burns of Lemon Grove, a graduate student in the Department of Theatre Arts at the California State University, Fresno, is one of 12 students who have formed the University Repertory Company. The theatre company will produce two plays this summer and conduct a theatre tour during the fall.

Burns, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Burns of 8337 Mt. Vernon st., Lemon Grove, is a graduate of St. Augustine High School in San Diego.

He has had major roles in the CSUF Reader's Theatre productions of "The Chairs & The Lesson," and "Rhinoceros." He also had acting assignments in Shaw's "Major Barbara," and "As You Like It." He has directed an Experimental Theatre Company production at CSUF and has acted professionally in New York.

The University Repertory Company will present Moliere's "Tartuffe" and George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man." Both productions will be stage in the CSUF Arena Theatre.

Burns has been cast as Tartuffe in what is considered to be Moliere's best comedy. This is primarily a result of the characterization of Tartuffe, the hypocrite, who is the main character in the play. He is the holy man, the all-good and all-trustworthy scoundrel who by deceiving the rich and distinguished Orgon, absconds with his money, house, and finally his daughter.

SYMPHONY'S FIRST WOMAN conductor will be Margaret Harris, Broadway's only woman music director. On Aug. 4, Miss Harris and special guest stars Fred Finn and the Mickie Finn Band perform in the third show of the six-show series "Star Spangled Summer" to be presented under the stars at Open Air Theatre, San Diego State. Tickets for the summer series, opening July 17, are on sale at the Symphony Office, Balboa Park.

Marshall Earns Degree

Robert E. Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Marshall, received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of California at Los Angeles in commencement ceremonies June 14.

Marshall's father is a past president of the Lemon Grove Lions Club and is the operator of Golfland Golf and Tennis Shop in Grossmont Center.

The graduate received his degree in political science and international relations and averaged a 3.0 grade point average at UCLA. He will work on his master's degree at San Diego State University.

Census Survey Planned Here

Questions on consumer buying and home improvement expectations will be asked in this area by Bureau of the Census interviewers during the first two weeks of July, according to C. Michael Long, Director of the Bureau's Data Collection Center in Los Angeles.

The survey is taken four times yearly as part of a nationwide effort to collect information as a guide to Federal agencies and other goups in developing programs on consumer spending patterns.

A sample of residents will be asked if they expect to buy a house, car, or major appliance during the next year and if they have made recent purchases of these items. Homeowners will be asked about home improvements and repairs during the last three months and any planned for the future.

SDG&E Declares Dividend

San Diego Gas & Electric Company last week declared a quarterly dividend of 27 cents per share on its common stock, payable July 15 to shareholders of record June 30.

The company board of directors declared quarterly dividends on its preferred and preference stocks May 15.

Three Stars Signed For 'Starlight'

Two well-liked television personalities, along with the singing star who captured the admiration of most of San Diego for her sensational appearance as Anna in "The King and I" last season, have been signed as stars of the three productions of the 1972 season of United States International University's Starlight Summer Musicals.

The stars are Charles Nelson Reilly who will portray Harold Hill in "The Music Man," Bill Hayes who will be John Adams in "1776" and Shani Wallis who will be Nellie Forbush in "South Pacific."

Charles Nelson Reilly is the funnyman who became an instant laugh favorite in the television series, "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir," in which his costarring role won him an Emmy nomination. This was followed by his appearances on "The Dean Martin Show" then a regular co-star on "Arnie."

At the same time, he was creating merriment with Larry Storch in "The Gold Diggers." His appearances on talk and game shows won him even more delighted followers.

Reilly is a veteran performer in every sense of the word with over 3,000 Broadway performances in four smash hits. For his successful appearance on Broadway in "Hello Dolly!", he received a coveted Tony nomination.

Bill Hayes, one of the original stars on the musical comedy television series, "Show of Shows" is now best recognized for his co-starring role in the popular soap opera, "Days of Our Lives." Hayes' wide experience embraces concert stage, vaudeville and night club appearances; Broadway shows; the film, "The Cardinal"; and guest shots on virtually every national television variety and dramatic show.

Shani Wallis, who achieved overnight stardom with her first feature film role as Nancy in "Oliver!," now combines night-club appearances with musical comedy work and concert tours. Her dynamic portrayal and singing last season as Anna in "The King and I" electrified San Diego audiences and she easily proved to be the most popular of performers along with her co-star, William Chapman.

The 1972 Starlight Summer Musical season includes an evening of ballet in addition to the usual three musicals. Shows and their play dates are as follows: "Giselle," four performances July 5 throught July 9; "South Pacific," eleven performances, July 11 through July 25; "The Music Man," eleven performances, July 29 through August 12; "1776", eleven performances, August 15 through August 26.

ACHIEVEMENT AWARD — Walter C. Nicklas, center, an employee of the Lemon Grove Post Office, was presented with a Special Achievement Award last Wednesday morning by assistant postmaster Nate Hale, at left, while Ben Anella, superintendent of the mails at the post office, was on hand to offer his congratulations. Nicklas received the award after it was learned that he had saved the life of a local apartment dweller in April. According to reports, Nicklas was awakened at about 3:30 a.m. and noticed flames through the window of a neighboring apartment. Upon investigation, he noticed the door slightly ajar and calls for help from inside. He ran inside, where the bedroom was a mass of flames and pulled the occupant to safety. By the time he was out of the apartment, the living room was also engulfed in fire. The structure was later rebuilt.

New Law Requires Registration Of Off-Road Motor Vehicles

Director of Motor Vehicles Robert C. Cozens today issued a reminder that a new law requiring the registration of mini-bikes, dune buggies, trail cycles and all-terrain vehicles for off-highway use takes effect July 1.

"Most motorists get their cars tuned up or repaired before starting a vacation trip," he pointed out. "It's equally advisable now to register that family off-highway vehicle before heading for California's great outdoors. Vehicles bearing regulation license plates do not need off-highway registration," he emphasized.

The Chappie-Z'berg Off-Highway Motor Vehicle Law requires that motor bikes, buggies and cycles used exclusively on public land — and not otherwise registered or exempt — be "identified". Upon payment of the $15 fee, DMV will issue a reflectorized sticker, an identification certificate and an ownership certificte, upon proof of ownership.

Each registration period is for two years ending June 30 of even-numbered years. The full fee is payable regardless of when the vehicle is registered.

Cozens said that for vehicles already in active off-highway use on public land, the entire month of July will be available for applicants to register without penalty. If an owner, after July 1, does not use his vehicle until later in the year, the non-penalty registration period would run 30 days from the date of first use. However, in that case the applicant must certify that his vehicle was not in use earlier.

Registrar of Motor Vehicles John McLaughlin said the law requires a penalty of $2 plus the original $15 fee, if the registration fee is paid within 30 days of the date a penalty becomes due; thereafter, the penalty is $10 plus the original fee.

One purpose of the legislation is to make it easier for law enforcement officers to identify vehicles not properly registered, not legally owned by the user, or being used in an unlawful manner.

Of major benefit to vehicle owners will be the theft deterrent resulting from DMV's record of engine and frame serial numbers, making it easier for law enforcement officers to identify stolen vehicles or parts.

McLaughlin explained that the combination of visible identification sticker and DMV's computerized information about each vehicle should help to reduce misuse of public lands and unlawful operation of the off-highway vehicle itself.

Enforcement of the off-highway Vehicle Code provisions is the responsibility of sheriff's departments or other local peace officers.

Work Projects Wanted By Youth Center Kids

The youngsters who frequent the Lemon Grove Youth Center are seeking clean-up projects. They will do anything from yard cleanup to painting. Pay for the work ranges from a soft drink for each worker, to cash donations to the Youth Center. In any event, the cost is so minimal that it is next to nothing, they said. Arrangements can be made through Frank Shughrue, manager of L. G. First National Bank.

The Center also needs persons to pledge financial support to aid the Center during the summer months. Shughrue, chairman of the Youth Center Assn. board, said that several regular contributors had stopped after the newspaper promotion started. He said that contributors believed the newspaper support would carry the whole load. Actually, it was to have been an added aid to get the Center through the busy summer months.

A money-making project for the youngsters will be a dollar car-wash at the Urich station on Broadway July 15. Proceedes from that project will finance a beach outing, according to Dale Wood, Center director.

A reader campaign by which varying amounts from 50 cents to $2 is given to the Center's operation has been suplying funds varying from $5-$25 a week. Shughrue announced that a charitable group in Lakeside had provided $500 for recreation equipment. None of that has been used, yet, he said.

New subscribers who are aiding the Center this week include:

SV Man Named June 'Employee Of Month'

Joseph DeCrescente, of 8908 Jamacha rd, Spring Valley, has been named June Employee of the Month at the San Diego Navy Public Works Center.

A Navy civil service employee, he was honored before the Center Executive Board and presented the Navy command's Certificate of Merit and special key chain decorated with a replica of the PWC emblem.

His "exceptional" professional capabilities in his trade and constant participation in community activities, slanted towards helping his fellow man, were the combined elements gaining recognition as PWC Employee of the Month.

"DeCrescente has complete knowledge of all aspects of the painting trade, which not only includes painting and wall papering, but wood-graining and furniture-refinishing as well. His ability in wood-graining is of top quality," is the way his boss General Forman Painter Bob Hale of 10717 Valle Vista rd., Lakeside, explained DeCrescente.

PWC co-workers were also quick to point out other "exceptional" characteristics of this "Man Named Joe."

"His ability to communicate with fellow employees, commands served by the Center, and top area military personnel is outstanding," was the co-worker point of view. His supervisors called him a man fellow employees look to for guidance, especially in the field of furniture work. He's said to constantly be on the alert for new and better ways of performing work and is quick to pass along new methods to his supervisors and fellow employees.

Head of Maintenance, Walt McCollum of 7915 Lincoln st., Lemon Grove, called DeCrescente an employee requiring a minimum amount of supervision. "When he is assigned a job with a deadline you can count on it being accomplished in a good workmanlike manner," McCollum commented.

In making the presentation PWC Executive Officer, Captain Benjamin Saravia, especially commented on work by DeCrescente in the civilian community.

"DeCrescente is involved with a volunteer group called ABC (Aid to Baja, Calif.) Joe, with help from his many friends, built an orphanage in Tecate, and one in Tijuana complete with beds, mattresses, and blankets donated by various organizations. In addition, he has also built and equipped two free dental clinics in Mexico plus other projects," Capt. Saravia explained.

And his desire to help others has involved PWC coworkers.

Library Plans Kids' Special

Three special programs are on tap this summer for youngsters at the La Mesa Library, according to children's coordinator Helga Remy.

The first two will be July 11 and 25, when special children's films will be shown. Those to be screened include "People Soup", Homer Price's "Doughnuts", and "The Hound That Thought He Was a Raccoon".

Wrapping up the summer will be a special treat for youngsters who have completed the library's reading program. Those youngsters will walk through the "haunted house" to receive their reading certificates, Additionally, two "haunted" films will be shown, "Winter of the Witch", and "Live Ghost", a Laurel and Hardy film.

Youngsters enrolling in the summer reading program are required to read ten or more books by August 12 to qualify for the certificate and the trip through the haunted house.

For further information, contact Mrs. Remy at the library, 8055 University ave., La Mesa. The library is open from 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Saturday.
